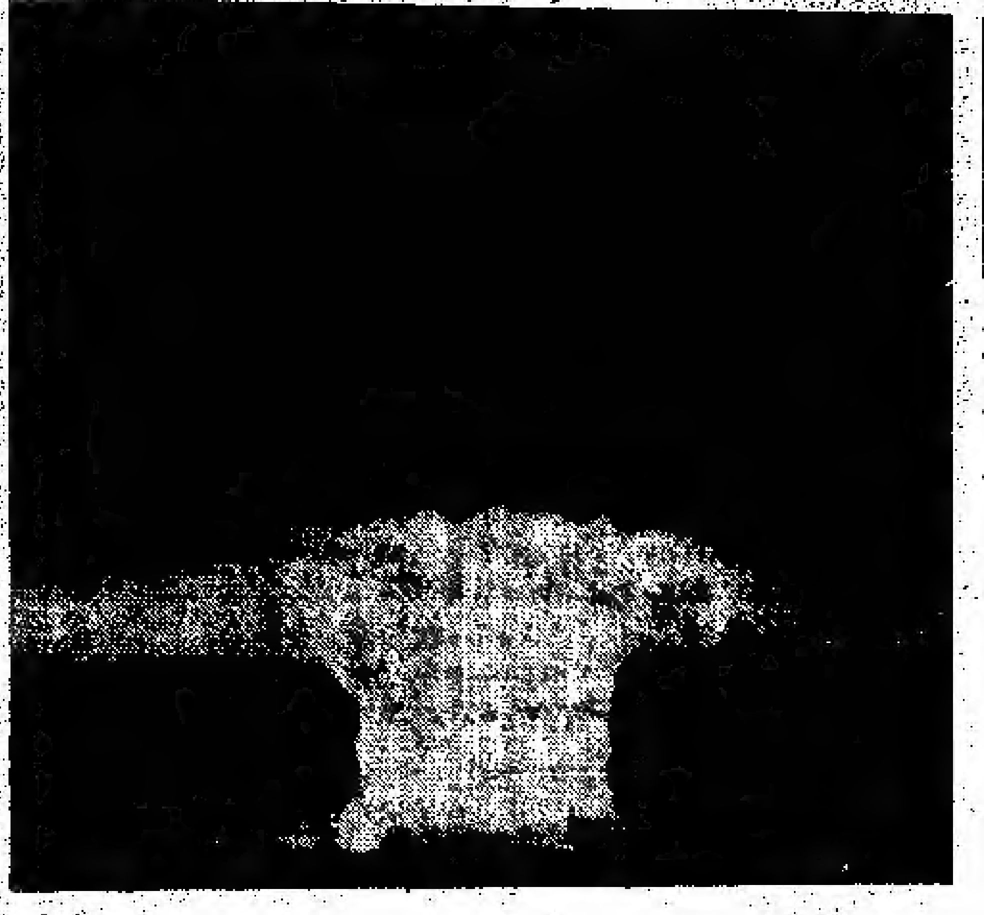
Wpg. Consul Holds A-Bomb Services



WINNIPEG, Man.—Church and temple bells echoed softly throughout the world recently on the 20th Anniversary of the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

The first bomb hit Hiroshima on August 6th indiscriminately slaughtering some 78,000 people. Three days later on August 9th Nagasaki was hit with over 150,000 victims. And today, 20 years later, A-bomb victims are still dying from their radiation effects.

"The sacrifice of these victims was for the sake of a better world," said Winnipeg Japan Consul, K. Okazaki at memorial services conducted this week by Christian and Buddhist ministers at his official residence.

Consul Okazaki's attitude of the bombing comes from a great personal loss. His wife was one of the victims at Hiroshima. So were 10 other close relatives.

A day before the Hiroshima blast, Okazaki was on a business trip in Nara, some 350 miles away. His wife phoned him that day informing him that she would join him in Nara. That was the last time he was to hear from her.

When he was informed of the bomb, he tried unsuccessfully to get in immediate touch with Hiroshima. Travel was restricted for a week during the chaos. He finally got on a freight train bound for the stricken city.

When he reached what was left of his home, he found a little note written in charcoal by his wife. Unable to walk after the bombing, she had crawled painfully to a river bank with her little baby. Some people had found her burnt and purple and took her to her parent's home.

Okazaki hopped a coal car to her bedside. A couple of weeks later on September 2nd, the unconditional surrender treaty was signed. Mrs. Okazaki died the same day from radiation poisoning.

Her son, fortunately, survived and is presently a student in a Tokyo University.

Consul Okazaki, now remarried to a cousin of his first wife and father of a daughter, gave the following speech at his residence in commemoration of the 20th anniversary of man's greatest inhumanity against man:

B.C. Cancer Society Wants 40 More Issei For Tests

VANCOUVER. — Last year the B.C. Cancer Society, wondering why people of Japanese descent had approximately 5-times the stomach cancer rate than other races, took a diet survey of 60 Vancouver Issei. This resulted in proof that they had a distinctly different diet to other Canadians.

Dr. MacDonald of the Cancer Institute has once again aproached the Vancouver JCCA for aid in recruiting more Issei in a further step to determine the relationship between diet and stomach cancer.

The research that is required now is an acid test of the stomach. In this test the stomach acid is extracted and analyzed.

Approximately 40 volunteer Japanese Canadians between the ages of 50 and 65 are required to complete this research during the next five months. The test itself is by no means dangerous but requires that a rubber tube be inserted into the stomach (though the nose) in order to extract the acid. Time required for this is approximately one and a half hours during which the volunteer can sleep or read. Other procedures are that the volunteer cannot have breakfast on the morning of the test and an injection will be made prior to the test so that the maximum amount of acid will be produced in the stomach.

Both the Vancouver JCCA and The Cancer Research Institute hope that they will be able to find volunteers.

Volunteers will be provided with transportation and are asked to contact the Vancouver JCCA.

Japan Divorcee Becoming Billionaire

TOKYO. — An unattached 28-year-old Japanese woman is fast becoming a billionaire (Japanese currency) despite a "storm of depression" in Japan, according to the shipping and trade news, of a Tokyo newspaper.

The newspaper said the woman is Miss Reiko Ikeguchi "who until four years ago was a cabaret hostess, but now owns and operates seven cabarets in Tokyo, Yokohama and Osaka with the operating capital of 300 million yen ($831,000) and using some 500 employees."

The newspaper said a controversy is brewing among her former partners on the dance floor about how she managed to save up so much money.

One hostess was quoted as saying, "Most hostesses are lazy, but not she."

"She is brilliant and tough minded. She knew the laws and regulations well and was perfect about coping with the taxation office."

The newspaper said she was a Kobe capitalist's daughter, studied literature at a university and entered the entertainment business after her divorce from a businessman in Yokohama.

She studied economics and read and absorbed all the books she could find on enterprise analysis, the newspaper said.

But she does not love her job and is scornful of the cabaret business, the newspaper said.

She only regards it as a place to make money, and nothing more, it added.

Fifty Year Old U.S. Nisei Judoka To Compete In CNE Tourney Next Sat.

TORONTO.—What boxer Archie Moore was to pugilism yesterday, Detroit Nisei Leo Furukawa is to judo today. At 50 years of age, Furukawa, 4th-dan, will be the oldest competitor next Saturday, August 21st at the 6th Annual Canadian National Exhibition Judo Championship.

This tournament, to be held in the CNE's Small Judging Ring, East Wing of Coliseum, is open to all members of the International Judo Federation and sanctioned by the Canadian Kodokan Black Belt Association. Black Belt competitions begin at 6:30 p.m. Junior judokas will have their tournament at the same place on Friday, August 20th.

Coming with Furukawa from Detroit will be the defending champion, the sensational Koji Oshima, 5th-dan. This 26-year-old, 5th-dan holder, pitted his 5-feet-4-inch 140-pound frame against opponents who outweighed him by as much as 125 pounds last year and dazzled the audience with spectacular throws.

Also coming as a coach will be the great U.S. Nisei judoka, Johnny Osaka, 6th-dan.

Top Toronto Hatashita stable fighters such as Paul Schelck, "Big Nick" Bleyendahl, Don McClelland, will not be competing this year. Neither will be the three Canadian entries to this year's World Judo Championship to Rio De Janiero in October Doug Rogers, Mike Johnson, and Pat Bolger.

Last year's runner-ups Dave Malloy of Camp Borden and Duncan Vigualle of the Tanino Judo School will be competing.

A 5-Man Black Belt Team Competition between Canada and the United States will also be held.

Japanese Judoka Refuses Dutch Coaching Job

TOKYO. — Takeshi Koga, who was defeated by Anton Geesink of the Netherlands in the semi-finals of the 1961 World Judo Championships in Paris, said he would be unable to accept a two-year coaching assignment in Holland.

A report from the Hague said recently that the Dutch Judo Federation had decided to get Koga as a judo coach over a two-year stretch.

Koga said that he was an employee of the Yawata Steel Works and that he felt two years was "too long a stretch" for him to be away from his job.

"Even if I went to the Netherlands to coach judo. I would have to return to my job at Yawata Steel Works," Koga said. "I feel that two years is a bit too long for me to stay away."

Koga said he might be interested in going if it were for a year or a shorter period.

"Flying Fish" To Coach Japan Team

TOKYO. — Hironoshin "Flying Fish" Furuhashi, one of Japan's greatest postwar swimmers, was recently appointed coach of an eight-men swimming team which will be sent to compete in the Mexican championships in Mexico City in October.

Furuhashi and two aides will study conditions in Mexico City as part of the preparation for participation in the 1968 Olympic Games in Mexico City.

Furuhashi set a new world's record of 18 minutes 19 seconds for the 1,500 meters on Aug. 16, 1949 in Los Angeles. The time, which has been bettered, was amazing because it had shattered the previous record established in 1948 by one minute 29.1 seconds.

Karate Master Matsutatsu Oyama Claims To Have Fought 250 "Life or Death" Match[es]

Hokubei Mainichi

SAN FRANCISCO. — Matsutatsu Oyama is a mild mannered gentleman of middle years, medium height and soft man[ner]. He smiles a good deal and has a gentle handshake. A stranger m[ight] take him for a schoolteacher.

In a sense that would be correct, Oyama is the "dean" [of] dozens of schools all over the world — schools of the art of k[arate]. He is also a former world champion of karate, and, as such, probably qualifies as one of the most dangerous men in the w[orld].

Recently Matsutatsu (which translates from the Japanese "Mighty Mountain") Oyama visited San Francisco to peek in his local karate headquarters — the Northern California He[ad]quarters of the "Schools of Oyama" here. Business here, as e[lse]where, is booming in the karate game.

Dirty Fighting

Ever since a decade or so ago, when this killer sport beg[an] to become well known in the western world, students in increas[ing] numbers have been flocking to learn it.

American karate buffs hasten to define it as a sport. Actuall[y] it is the ultimate in fighting — the ability to use han[ds,] feet, elbows, knees as instruments of death.

It was developed hundreds of years ago in Korea and Chi[na] as the only defense against armed soldiers by men too poor [to] afford weapons.

Serious students of karate learn not only how to hit (a k[a]rate blow is delivered with a snapping motion — like the crack[ing] of a whip), and where to hit (all the various vulnerab[le] features of an enemy's anatomy), but also breath control, Ze[n] and even self-hypnotism.

In Japan, where all weapons must be registered with th[e] authorities, karate graduates are registered as living weapons.

Death Duel

Matsutatsu began to gain in personal fame during a duel i[n] pre-war Japan when, unarmed, he fought a skilled samurai swords[man]. Death matches were more or less legal in Japan at the time and Matsutatsu killed the swordsman with one skull-crushi[ng] punch. Then, like a gunfighter of the American West, he polish[ed] off a succession of rivals until there was no one left who cou[ld] challenge him. Apparently there still isn't. He's the Rocky Ma[r]ciano of Japan.

Bull Killer

Asked how many death matches he had fought in his care[er] Oyama pondered for a moment:

"Oh . . ." He replied, hesitating, ". . . oh, maybe . . . mayb[e] 250."

Of recent years Matsutatsu has contented himself pretty muc[h] with matches and exhibitions where he smashes up bricks, stone[s,] heavy boards, etc. He obligingly smashed two large bricks in [a] newspaper's office — one with his elbow, and another with hi[s] left hand.

In other exhibitions he has killed bulls with a blow of the fist and he claims that any man weighing over 200 pounds can be taught to perform this feat.

Gentle Soul

When asked how a person goes about killing a bull with his bare hands, Oyama held up his right fist and displayed distended, eggsized knuckles:

"Three ways," he said with his almost benign smile. "here . . ." and he touched the knuckles to the area between his eyes; "Here . . ." indicating the back of his neck, "or here," he concluded, touching the side of his neck, under the ear.

On at least one of the 186 bulls Oyama has dispatched he used a different method — hard body blows which ruptured the animal's kidneys. That exhibition was staged in Spain where it is custom to send the carcasses of deceased bulls to the butcher shop. Oyama's bull was reputedly found to be unusable as food because of its extensive internal injuries.

"He's a very gentle person when you get to know him," the student continued. "He's an adept of Zen, and he spends a lot of time just meditating. But when he fights in a match he's the fiercest man you'll ever see. You wouldn't recognize him in the ring."

Oyama's first book in the art of karate, published in 19[illegible], sold 80,000 copies. Now he's written another, bigger one (just o[ff] the press) entitled "This Is Karate," and it's considered by many to be the definitive work on the subject.

No Fear

In karate, as in other "sports," there are different styles. Some years ago he issued a blanket challenge to the leading masters of all other systems of karate to meet him in a certain place at a certain time to prove their systems against his. Nobody showed.

"I fear no man," Oyama says, smiling, and if this statement seems lacking in modesty, it at least has a firm ring of truth to it.

Next year Oyama hopes to be able to organize the world's largest gathering of karate buffs yet held and stage an international karate championships here in San Francisco.

「ううむ」

仁王竹はぴくつと手足をちぢめ、歯をくいしばつて他愛もなく氣絶してしまつた。

「なんだ、こんなところで眠つてしまつちや困るじやないか」

若侍は、その手をつかんで、ずるずると大きな体を橋の一方へ片寄せ、往來止めをくつた人々が呆氣にとられてぽかんと眺めている間に、さつさと本宿の方の人ごみのなかへまぎれこんで、姿を消してしまつた。

始めがのろのろと、あまりぱつとしなかつただけに、それは余くあざやかな豹變ぶりで、いざとなると、ずいぶん思い切つた眞似をする男、そんな印象を見ている人々に強くあたえたようだ。

「早い足ですね、旦那は」

「そうかなあ」

悠々と歩いているようでいて、歩幅が人より廣いのだ。もつとも身の丈五尺七寸の上はあるだろう、化物のような仁王竹には及ばないが、がつしりと均勢のとれたいい体格だ。

「さきほどはどうも旦那、ありがとうござんした」

「ああ、あの鯨か。君のつれの姐さんはなかなか美人だが口も惡いなあ。どうした、姿が見えんようだが」

「旦那の足が早すぎるんでさ。――ところでねえ旦那あれは横町の常五郎つて親の妹で、両國興行町から藝者に出ている小菊つて姐さんなんです。鯨のお詫びにぜひ旦那に一杯さしあげてえつていつてるんですが、そこいらで附合つていただけやせんかねえ」

「それには及ばない」

「へえ、及ばないんですかえ」

忘れたい "原爆の遺児"
あれから二十年の八月十五日
(下)

かばってくれた兄

その父が亡くなったのは昭和二十六年(一九五一年)五月一日夜九時五十分。茅乃さんは小學校四年生。二人の兄妹は博士の弟、元さん=長崎市上野町、長崎醫大付屬病院勤務=方に引き取られ、六人のイトコといっしょに育てられた。誠一さんは海星高から上智大學新聞學科、茅乃さんは純心女子高から長崎大へ。

『母親なしで育った苦勞をよく人から聞かれますがオバがいてくれたので安心でした。オジ、オバと兄のおかげで、私は戰後のつらさをあまり知りません。一番苦しかったのは兄だと思います』

その兄は無類の妹思い。會社勤めになってから茅乃さんの學資と小づかいの仕送りをずっと續け、かげになり日なたになりしてかばってくれた。當然のことながら、二人の仲はよい。誠一さんが東京にいたときは會う機会も少なかったが、昨年春、徳島へ轉勤してからは、二人の距離はグンとちぢまった。週末を利用して、茅乃さんはしばしば海を渡る。

『きびしい先生』に

茅乃さんは身長一メートル五〇センチ。中學一年生と肩を並べてもあまりかわらない。だが學校では『きびしい先生』で通っている。自分自身で決めた信條が安易な妥協を一切許さないのだ。それでいて生徒たちの人氣をつないでいるのは彼女のあたたかい人柄のせいだろう。『責任感の强い、眞面目な先生です』と濱野茂校長も目を細める。

茅乃さんは過去の話をしたがらない。というよりつとめて過去を忘れようとしているといった方がいいだろう。あまりにもむごい原爆被災者の傷跡、長いこと弁當箱に入れられていた母の遺骨などを思い出すからだ。

それに有名すぎた父の名聲。どこへ行っても『永井先生のお嬢さん』とつきまとう世間の目は茅乃さんに重すぎた。一体、いつになったら『永井の子』『原爆の…』からのがれ出すことができるだろうかと、ノイローゼになった時期さえあった。

『生意氣なことをいうようですが、父を乗り越えるだけの人間になりたいのが私の願いです』

人間的にもかなり成長したはずなのに、茅乃さんは愼重に自分の人生をみつめている。

カナダ産小麦を ソ連が大量買付

＝價格にして四億五千万弗＝

【ウイニペッグ】シャープ通商相は今週、當地での記者會見で、ソ連は一九六五―六六年作の小麦約一億八千七百ブッシェルを購入する契約に署名したと發表した。價格にして四億五千万弗にのぼるとみられている。

シャープ通商相はカナダ小麦の對外輸出目標は六億ブッシェルになる見込みであり、一九六三―六四年度の最高輸出額より六千三百三十万ブッシェルを超過することになり、十二億弗がカナダ經濟に注入されることになると發表した。

【モスクワ】ソ聯がカナダから小麦を新しく大量買付けを行ったことで、ソ連國内の小麦不作が示されるとみられており、ソ連は今後數年間にわたってカナダから小麦を買いつづける可能性があるといわれている。

羅府で暴動

市民六千人が

【ロサンゼルス】當市警察は市内黒人區域付近の數ブロックを十二日夜封鎖し、出入りを禁止した。去る十一日夜酔っ拂いの黒人ドライバーを警官が逮捕したことで、約千五百の市民が八時間にわたって騒ぎ出し、十二日夜にはそれが擴大して約六千人が引きつづいて警官隊とせり合いを演じ、死者一名、負傷者數名を出したが、その間、通行人が亂暴されたり、自動車が轉覆されたりで手におえぬ暴動となり「コップス（警官）をやっつけろ」と連呼しながら、いきり立った白黒人市民が下町を練りあいた。

ミサイル

米機を撃墜

【サイゴン】北ベトナムを空爆中だった米海軍機一機は十二日夜、地上より發射されたミサイルのため撃墜されたと發表された。米軍スポークスマンによると、同機はハノイ南西五十哩の地点に墜落したが、機動ミサイルのため射ち落されたものであろうと發表している。この事件は米機がミサイルでうちおとされた二度目である。

日系人へ勲章を

カナダは市民權喪失の高代價

日本政府は永年海外で活躍している日系人および日本人の年長者、在住國と日本の親善に功勞あった人々を毎年定期的に表彰叙勲することになり、今春より在外公館長に人選方をすすめるよう指示し、おそくとも今秋ごろには叙勲が行われるはずである。

もちろんカナダもこのなかにふくまれるものであるが、カナダ人が外國政府から勲章を貰うことはカナダ政府としては傳統的に快よしとせず拒みつづけてきており、敢て叙勲をうける者はカナダ市民權を喪失するという内規もあるなどの点から大使館やト市總領事館では『叙勲對象となる日系人は數氏に及ぶが、かかる事情下にあっては選考・推せんはちゅうちょされる』という意味を外務省に通告している。

これについて青木總領事は『他州はともかく、本館と大使館はこのラインに沿い、市民權を失ってまで勲章をうけるということは、叙勲の意義と相反するということを本省に傳えています』と語っている。

自由黨が首相に迫る

今秋選擧は好機會と

【オタワ】今年中にピアソン首相は総選擧に打って出るのではないかとの見方がまたも燃えあがってきている。おそくとも八月末までには自由黨内からピ首相に對して、決斷を迫る要請が出されるのではないかとも傳えられている。その理由は――

（一）ソ連からばく大なる小麦の注文が入って、保守黨の根城とされる平原三州の壁を破るにはもってこいの時機である。

（二）体面をこわさない程度で、ともかく郵便ストが解決されたこと。

（三）モ市と晩市における小麦積出し人のストもやっと解決され小麦積出しを開始した。

以上ますますの及第点をうけ得る事柄による余裕があるうちに、ピ首相は今秋選擧を宣告すべきであると自由黨首腦部が首相にはたらきかけることになろうというわけである。

財政危機解消へ

國連軍負担金で米國が譲歩

【ワシントン】國連の財政的危機は來週中には解消することになろう。米國はソ連があくまで國連軍負担額を支拂わないのに對して、支拂の強要を放棄する方針だと消息筋は明らかにしているからである。

米國がかかる方針をとることになったのは、ソ連負担額の支拂い要求に對して加盟國の支持を得られないことと、ソ連は國連運營のため多額を献金することになっているので、この際、負擔額はあっさり帳消しにすることで、米國民の反感を買うことはあるまいとの判断に立っているからである。

ご訪問日程変る

三笠宮両殿下の卜市ご訪問日は變更されて、九月二十九日と三十日の兩日ご滞在され二泊となった。從って日系人による歓迎會の日程も變わることになろう。両殿下は九月二十九日モ市よりご來市される予定。

"恥の輸出"に

當局眼光らす

【東京】日本商品に對する海外からのクレームがふえている。『輸出が伸びればクレームも……』などといういささか無責任な言葉も一部関係者の間ではささやかれているが、警察庁では貿易業者の中には意図的に『日本の恥』を輸出する悪質なものもかなりあるとみて、このほど防犯課に『クレーム担當者』（警部）を設置、クレームの多い業者のブラックリスト作りに乗り出した。

一歩も退かぬ決意

航空交渉で

【東京時事通信】中村運輸相は今週、衆院運輸委で目下東京で開催中の日米航空協定交渉について次のように答弁した。

（一）今回の日米航空交渉は現協定の不平等を是正する最後の機會だ。私としては是正が行なわれない限り一歩も退かない決意である。

（二）米側が一括方式で日本に代償を要求しているが、全部の條件を認めなければならないとは思わない。こちらも世界一周路線以外にも要求を出しており、立ち

ニグロ市民に

嫌がらせ

【オ州アムハーストバーグ】人口四千四百の當市内に住むニグロ（百二十五人）に對して、ケーケーケー團がいやがらせを行っていることが大きく報じられている。同市内のニグロは今までなんらのトラブルもなかったが、今週になってニグロ住宅前で木造りの十字架を焼きつけたり、建物の壁に『ケーケーケーが市を本部』と書書したりで、ニグロ住民を不安がらせ、自衛のため立ちあがれとニグロ人が集會を開いたりしている。

日加、直ちに承認

シンガポール新獨立國家を

【オタワ】カナダ政府はマレーシア連邦から離脱して獨立國となったシンガポールを承認したとピアソン首相は今週明らかにした。シンガポールの李光耀首相宛の承認電文の寫しをピ首相が公開した。

【東京時事通信】日本政府は今週の閣議でシンガポールを承認することを決めた。政府は直ちにシンガポールの上田總領事に訓電し、日本政府の承認意思をシンガポール政府に通告、同時にマレーシア政府にも日本がシンガポールを承認した旨を通告した。

椎名外相は閣議でシンガポール獨立問題について次のように報告した。

（一）シンガポールは九日マレーシア連邦から分離獨立し、主權國家となった。

（二）將來の見通しとしては兩國間に經濟、防衛上の密接な關係があるため、シンガポールが獨立を契機にインドネシアに傾いていくことは考えられない。シンガポール負債問題は獨立によって中絶することになろう。シンガポールの承認問題については現在外務省で檢討中である。

ビーシー州最高峰の

登頂一歩前で断念！

【晩市】ビーシー州内の最高峰、ワデングトン山（一三、二六〇呎）を征服するため、はるばる新西院の姉妹都市守口市から参加した一行七名の登山隊は、吹雪や亂氣になやまされて所期の目的を達し得なかった。晩市北西二百マイルのコースト山脈中にある同山の約一万二千呎までのぼりつめたが、それから頂上へは悪天のためのぼれず、断念して下山したと今週報じられた。

Japan's Cute Bus Girls Are Now On Their Way Out

TOKYO.—One of the delights of travel in Japan is the apple-cheeked teen-aged bus girl who announces the stops, apologizes to her passengers for sudden lurches and bumps, warns of impending starts, leans out her window to help the driver navigate through crowded streets, and, while collecting fares, cheerily copes with drunks, delays and querulous passengers.

She is a close cousin to the airline stewardess.

Unfortunately, she is disappearing. All over the country, what the Japanese call the "one-man" bus is rapidly replacing the traditional team of driver and conductress.

In the "one-man" bus, which the Japanese emphatically dislike, the driver collects the fare, but he doesn't have the time — or the charm — to mollify and jollify the passengers; bus travel is getting grim.

The vanishing bus girl, insignificant in herself, symbolizes a fundamental change that is coming over the Japanese economy.

Situation Reversed

Japan, which only a couple of decades ago was seeking room and employment for excess population, is now entering into a period of labor shortage as the postwar baby boom discharges the last of its progeny into the job market and expanding Japanese industry continues to demand an ever-growing number of workers.

The low wages and long hours of the "chusho kigyo", the small medium enterprises, contributed significantly to the low, attractive prices of Japan's exports in the past decade.

But the segments of the economy were so far out of balance that several years ago it was estimated that just 3 percent of the working force — those in the big factories — produced 45 percent of the national product.

Wage Rate Rising

The picture is changing, however. Fewer youngsters are entering the labor market and those who do are being gobbled up by the big factories and trading houses. To keep their workers and to get new ones, the "chusho kigyo" have had to increase wages at an even faster rate than the fig firms.

The wage spiral is bankrupting hundreds of small outfits.

And the gap between working conditions in the small and large concerns is, of necessity, narrowing.

Tanabata Summer Festival At J.C. Cultural Centre

TORONTO.—Tanabata Summer Festival planned for Saturday and Sunday, August 28 and 28, between 2 — 8 p.m. at the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre should truly be an International event. With gifts of authentic Tanabata decorations from Sendai, Japan, which arrived in a huge crate weighing 500 lbs., it should be nothing less then a gorgeous and colorful affair. Message commemorating the event is expected from the Mayor of Sendai, while Reeve Lucien Kurata of Metro Council, who will officially open the two day festival, has been asked to reciprocate this goodwill gesture from Sendai, on behalf of the people of Metropolitan Toronto. Program will consist of a concert-type show on the stage of the auditorium, Japanese meal (including Hiya-Udon) served by the Cultural Centre's Womens' Auxiliary and climaxing the day with Japanese Odori or Folk Dancing participated by the members of the Buddhist Church Dance Group, Sakura Kai and Mitsuba-kai. There will be games for children (including live fish pond), and Bazaar where many Japanese goods and souvenir items may be purchased. It should be an ideal way for families to wind up their summer holidays in a trip away from home.

How The Gift Came About

It would be interesting to know how this gift of Tanabata decorations came about.

It was during the World Conference of the Lions International held in Toronto last July that the members of Lions Club International of Japan visited the J.C. Cultural Centre. Among those impressed with the J.C. project were members from Sendai, the city particularly noted for its Tanabata festival. They were told of the Tanabata Festival being planned at the Cultural Centre that year and they had promised to send authentic Tanabata decorations from Sendai in time for the 1965 festival.

True to their words, gift of these decorations were sent and arrived in a crate weighing 500 lbs. It contained huge KUSUDAMA, FUKI NAGASHI, SENBA TSURU of silver and gold and Sendai Tanabata's traditional "paper wardrobe." These were specially made for the Cultural Centre by Mr. Mori, who combined the contemporary with the traditional Tanabata decorations of Japan.

It is especially interesting to note, that before shipping these decorations to Toronto, as their "International Goodwill Gift", a special send-off party was held with members of the Lions Club, Mayor of Sendai, members of Chamber of Commerce, and inviting as special guests Father Bisonette and sisters of the North Sendai Catholic Church to represent Canadian residents of Sendai. The Father thanked the people of Sendai for this gift to Canadians, saying "I am sure this gift will delight many Canadians, and that it will fulfill admirably its role as a goodwill ambassador between Japan and Canada."

Remember the dates — August 28 and 29.

"We are apt to forget what lies behind the significance of our existence on account of the pressure arising from our everyday life and we are only reminded of it when something unusual such as a strange, significant, depressing or happy incident or feeling occurs. Needless to say, our present day existence has been made possible by our ancestors, people of past generations, and elders. By this fact alone, we must not forget them and should give our humble thanks and express sincere appreciation. When we think of our lives today, it was they who laid the foundation with their untiring efforts and gradually built it up. This environment was not created yesterday or today alone by ourselves. We therefore have a responsibility to create a better world for the next generation to live in and we must reflect on the seriousness of our responsibility.

"We are gathered here today to commemorate and offer our silent prayers to the people who died from the atomic bombing of Hiroshima on August 6th and Nagasaki on the 9th, the first of its kind used on human beings in the human history; bombings which ultimately brought the last war to an end twenty years ago. To-day we also would like to ask protection of the Almighty Unseen Supreme Being so that peace in the world will prevail and through our mutual efforts, we may be able to lead prosperous and useful lives. The bombings caused great loss of life and many people lost their kinfolks, friends and acquaintances and for a time, they were thrown into depths of despair. However, these sacrifices were not in vain for it brought about the end to the dreadful war and saved many more human lives including Japanese. I believe ending the war also made it possible for the local Japanese Canadians to start life afresh and rebuild their present prosperous lives in Canada. These precious and dear sacrifices have also made a small country like Japan into one of the leading industrial powers of the world, even more so than the pre-war days, and to take her place as one of the free, democratic and cultured countries of the world.

"Our own private lives have also prospered which I believe, we owe much to the sacrifices made by the atomic and other war victims. To feel sorrow is the perogative of man and at the time, man alone is capable of guiding his or her sorrow into either happiness or unhappiness. To take advantage of such perrogative and ability is the mission placed on us.

"We feel grateful to those who gave their lives for us and as we are gathered here today, let us pledge ourselves for the enrichment of our future lives and strive to create a better world for the future generation who will be free from the threat of any phantom of nuclear bombs, and I would like to offer my humble prayer for the repose of the souls of our ancestors and the atomic bomb and other war victims."

these orders, to defend his constitutional rights. Convicted and sentenced to three months in prison, he applied to the supreme Court.

"Chief Justice Stone spoke for all nine in June 1943: the curfew was within the war power of the President and Congress. Concuring (Justice) Douglas wrote that the Court did not consider the wisdom of the order; (Justice) Murphy insisted that the government could take such measures only in 'great emergency.'

"In Korematsu v. United States, argued in October and decided December 18, 1944 the Court upheld an Army order banning civilians of Japanese ancestry from the west coast — adults, foster children in white homes, citizens 'with as little as one-sixteenth Japanese blood.' Justice Black wrote the majority opinion, mentioning Toyosaburo Korematsu's unquestioned loyalty. Orders affecting one racial group are 'immediately suspect,' said Black, but the Court would accept the order 'as of the time it was made,' under the war power.

"Three justices dissented, calling the order 'a clear violation of Constitutional rights,' 'utterly revolting among a free people."

That same day, the Court unanimously ordered the Central Utah Relocation Centre to release Miss Mitsuye Endo. The War Relocation Authority had conceded she was a loyal, law-abiding citizen, but it had not alowed her to leave the centre freely.

"Justice Douglas's opinion warned that power to defend the community is not power to detain trustworthy citizens. Federal courts may issue writs of habeas corpus in such cases, he said. 'Loyalty is a matter of the heart and mind,' added Douglas, not of race, creed, or color."

Photographs

Four photographs, one in color, covering two full pages, are also included. The accompanying text for the photographs explain the subject matters.

"Roundup of aliens in World War II begins an evacuation of persons of Japanese ancestry from west coast military zones. The government shipped the civilians to detention centres like Owens Valley in California. More then 110,000 Japanese Americans endured bleak camp life; one of them painted the picture above.

"Fighter for civil liberty, Dr. Gordon K. Hirabayashi teaches a class at the University of Alberta in Canada. A college senior in 1942, he required Japanese Americans to register for evacuation to relocation centres. He claimed that the Army order violated his rights as a U.S. citizen. His plea failed when the Supreme Court (Hirabayashi v. U.S.) held that threat of invasion and sabotage sanctioned the military restriction of constitutional rights among Japanese American citizens."

U.S. Sansei Wins Air Medal In Vietnam

ALAMEDA, Calif.—Lt. Bruce Norio Endo, U.S. Navy, was awarded the Air Medal for meritorious achievement as a section leader in action against the Phu Qui ammunition depot in North Vietnam last March 15.

Believed to be the first Nisei to pilot a naval aircraft (A1H Sky-raider) in combat, Endo is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University. He has completed 25 combat missions in Vietnam.

The citation was issued by Admiral Roy L. Johnson of the U.S. Pacific Fleet. It read, in part:

"In spite of extremely adverse weather conditions and in the face of heavy enemy ground fire, Lt. Endo successfully pressed home repeated minimum altitude bombing and strafing attacks effecting near total destruction of his assigned targets.

"His professional performance, aggressive action, superior airmanship and all steadfast devotion to duty were at all times in keeping with the highest traditions of the U.S. naval service."
